Memories

Miramar Cultural Center | ArtsPark is a versatile facility. Once you reserve one of our venues, we can help you create your event by providing food, beverage, staff and equipment. We can also combine our efforts with your existing event vendors to co-produce your event. We are here to serve the residents and businesses within our community. We can even assist you by providing a list of decorators that have provided these services in the past.

Food

We proudly present a variety of banquet menu choices to accommodate your event needs. We welcome the opportunity to meet with you personally and create a menu package that takes into consideration your specific event requirements, and addresses any specific dietary needs to please each and every one of your guests.

Beverage Selections

All beverages served at the facility will be purchased through the City of Miramar. There are several beverage packages that will suit your specific event's needs. We will be happy to tailor a beverage package to enhance your event, regardless of your budget.
